We would like to invite you to take a part in project for young people who will get to know each other through music, dance and their national folk traditions.

In this year we would like to organize already anniversary 5th vintage of the international youth exchange called “Music and folklore are connecting us V“. To all participants we will assure an accomodation in delightful environment, qualitative full board and programme centred on active artistic activity. Transport will be paid only partially (max 70%).

The main aims and purpose of the exchange:

- Arranging of the personal and professional contacts.
- Presenting of achievements from past international exchanges.
- Making a place for presenting of our own folklore and national traditions.
- Getting to know the national cultures and traditions in the way of multicultural evenings.
- Creating of the common orchestra (Youthband), preparing of the programme and its presentation on festival Svátek hudby 2010 in Němčice nad Hanou.

Art School Němčice nad Hanou is skilled administrator od international exchanges. It realised already four vintages of the project “Music and folklore are connecting us“:

1st vintage – Czech Republic and Slovakia 2006 carried out in Czech Republic.

2nd vintage – Czech Republic, Slovakia, Croatia and Serbia 2007 carried out in Croatia.

3rd vintage – Czech Republic, Slovakia, Poland a Ireland 2008 carried out in Czech Republic.

4th vintage – Czech Republic, Slovakia, Spain and Hungary 2009 carried out in Czech Republic.

In the project there are participated mainly young people, who work under the control of skilled lecturers and teachers. Daily activities are processed with maximum effort to deepen international integration and support activities in mixed international groups. The project is established on musical and dancing abilities, which support instant communication between participants. Preferred are already functional companies and groups which have national and folk music in their repertoire and they have sufficiency of courage and appetite for getting to know with music and folklore of the other countries.

Realisation of the project depends on obtaining funds through the grant „Music and folklore are connecting us V.“ By Czech national agency for Youth.

If you are interested in our offer:

- Leaders of particular countries will be invited for preparatory visit in location where project will be carried out.
- All partners are welcome to take an active part in preparation of daily activities.
- Due to making communication easier we require at least basic knowledge of English language.
- Please try to estimate also travel costs to Czech Republic.
